

Name: Lowel Jhay Q. Libo-on

Course/Year/Section: BS InfoTech 2C

Date: September 05, 2023

Activity No. 3

Short Description

The difference between a businessman and an entrepreneur is that businessmen rely on their existing ideas, with their primary goal being to enhance the profitability of their products rather than creating new ones. Entrepreneurs, on the other hand, are more creative and innovative, especially in the early stages of their businesses, where they have the freedom to create new things.

The difference between the two;

ENTREPRENEURS	BUSINESSMAN
1. Risk-taker	1. Moderate Risk-taker
2. New Ideas	2. Existing Ideas
3. Unstable profit	3. Stable profit
4. Unstable resources	4. Stable resources
5. Likely to succeed	5. Unlikely to succeed